

Senior Center Training

February 27-28, 2020

The Kane Center
900 SE Salerno Road | Stuart, FL 34997

Under the Sun!

Thursday, February 27

- 12:30 p.m. Registration Begins, The Kane Center
- 1:00 - 1:15 p.m. Welcome, Lisa Bharath, Membership & Program Coordinator
Council on Aging of Martin County at the Kane Center
- 1:15 – 1:45 p.m. The Kane Center Tour
- 2:00 – 3 p.m. Workshop: Integrative Memory Enhancement Program
Crystal Collier, Director of Adult Day Health Services
Council on Aging of Martin County at the Kane Center
- 3:15 – 4:15 p.m. Workshop: Operation Nuts & Bolts, Sheila Salyer, Manager,
Tallahassee Senior Services
- ★ A discussion about the nuts & bolts of managing a Senior Center. Topics may include hours of operations, donations v. fees, program scheduling, and more, as time allows.
- 4:15 Adjourn
- 4:45 - 7 p.m. Dinner (included with registration), Networking & J.K. Morgan Award
Presentation
-

Friday, February 28

- 8:30 a.m. Light Continental Breakfast at The Kane Center
(Breakfast is included at the hotel if you are staying overnight.)
- 8:45-9:45 a.m. Workshop: How to Get It All Done & Still Enjoy the Job, Lori Radice,
General Manager II-Nutrition and Wellness, Department of Aging Services,
Hillsborough County
- ★ Share ideas about how to manage your work time, meet deadlines, and tend to participants' needs in a busy Senior Center.
- 10-11:00 a.m. Workshop: Programming Trends: What's Hot? What's Not?
Sue Richerson, Vice President, FASC, Senior Centers Program Manager,
St. Johns County COA
- ★ Share programming ideas of what's "hot" in each other's centers. What's working? What's changing across the state and nationally. Bring your center's calendar of activities to share.
- 11 a.m.-Noon FASC Annual Meeting, Updates and Election of Officers
What are FASC, FCOA, NISC, & NCOA?
Senior Games Update
- 12 p.m. Adjournment – Safe Travels Everyone!